

1. Specify the chronology of the "war communism" policy.

"War Communism" is a policy introduced by Soviet leader Vladimir Lenin in 1918 year during the civil war in Russia and which involved drastic total measures to ensure the victory of the communist revolution.

The policy of "war communism" in Ukraine was carried out from the beginning of 1919 to 1921. nationalization of the entire industry of Ukraine, general compulsory labor between the ages of 16 and 49, militarization of labor - the so-called Labor Army was created (on looms in paint), organization of state farms, communes. Introduction in April 1919 in the village.